

BLUE WHALE STUDY

Blue Whales in South Eastern Australian Waters

This Blue Whale Study, conducted by whale ecologists Dr Peter Gill and Margie Morrice, is bringing to light important ecological information on these Endangered creatures. Since 1998 the Blue Whale Study has been investigating the ecology of blue whales (Balaenoptera musculus), the largest animal on Earth, in their feeding habitat in waters off southwest Victoria and southeast South Australia.

To find out more about Blue Whales in Australia go to <http://www.bluewhalestudy.com.au/home.html>

The Blue Whale Study invites you to support their mission to conserve Blue Whales in Australian waters. Click here to give your support <http://www.bluewhalestudy.com.au/donations.html>

